What is the Sabbatine Privilege?

Have you heard of the Sabbatine Privilege? I read that it releases the soul from purgatory on the first Saturday after death. Is that true?

There is a lot of misinformation about the practice. It's based on a letter by Pope John XXII - a contested "papal bull" issued in 1322 - that says that those who fulfill three conditions can obtain early liberation from purgatory, through Mary, on the day consecrated to her; Saturday.

These conditions are:

1. Wear the Brown Scapular of the Carmelite Order (A scapular consists of two pieces of cloth that are worn on the chest and back under one's clothing.);
2. Observe chastity according to one's state in life; and
3. Recite the Little Office of Our Blessed Mother (or the rosary, with permission from a priest to substitute it, or if one is obligated to do the Liturgy of Hours, then that is acceptable).

Regardless of the document's authenticity, since the counting of time is a human work, and God lives in eternity, we cannot expect him to be bound to our calendar. However, if anyone fulfills all the conditions listed above, then I am sure he or she is going to spend little time in purgatory, whatever day of the week it is here on earth.
