Why do we have Eucharistic devotions?

When I was young, we never had Eucharistic devotions. Why are they so popular now?

Prior to the Second Vatican Council, many Catholics found solid food for their spiritual lives in Eucharistic devotions, which include visiting the Blessed Sacrament (Eucharistic adoration), attending Forty Hours devotion, and assisting at Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

However, as the modern liturgical movement began picking up steam, scholars and theologians began questioning the amount of energy and attention going toward Eucharistic devotion. They urged us to focus our spirituality more clearly on the Mass - the action of the sacred liturgy and the Eucharist itself and to understand that all Eucharistic devotions outside of the sacred liturgy are meant to direct us back to the action of the Mass, the Eucharistic sacrifice, and its high point of communion.

The drop-off in Eucharistic devotions after Vatican II can be positively understood as an attempt to take the insights of liturgical reform seriously and to develop a more liturgical piety. At the same time, the resurgence of Eucharistic adoration is a worthy retrieval of a beloved practice that both scholars and the faithful understand as complementing a full, conscious, and active participation in the sacred liturgy that is the “source and summit” of our lives.
