A MESSAGE FROM STEPHEN BLACK - OUR PARISH CHOIR IS GROWING! The parish choir has been learning new music and has experienced growth in understanding how to use our voices better and to sing as an ensemble. We want to grow in numbers too! If you have idly thought about singing in the choir, now is the time to consider it more seriously. We currently have enjoyable rehearsals on Friday evenings at 7:00 p.m. (that is likely to change next season), and we gather at 11:00 a.m. on Sundays for a warm-up. So either consider for yourself, or egg on that friend you think should be in the choir! Please contact the church office if interested.

Am I already “saved”?

My neighbor is a fundamentalist Christian. He said I won't be “saved” unless I accept Jesus as my personal savior. Didn't Jesus become my savior when I was baptized?

Your neighbor is probably referring to John 3:7, when Jesus told Nicodemus, “You must be born anew.” Jesus is talking about a spiritual rebirth; we must have a spiritual birth in order to be saved. As you have correctly noted, Catholics believe this happens at baptism. In John 3:5, Jesus says, “No one can enter the kingdom of God without being born of water and Spirit.”

We are saved by the waters of baptism. But for Catholics, it's not merely a one-time event. We continue to accept or reject the salvation offered us by the decisions we make every day.

Your neighbor used the words “personal savior.” Catholic Christians go even deeper through the sacraments. We develop and nurture a very personal relationship with Jesus by regularly receiving the Eucharist. In the sacrament of reconciliation, we admit we have sinned and ask Jesus to forgive us. And in the sacrament of confirmation, our relationship is “sealed” with the gift of the Spirit.

Many Catholics also celebrate the sacrament of marriage. The couple's personal relationship with Jesus is deepened through the love the couple shares.

So tell your neighbor you are indeed saved by Jesus. And because you are saved, you deepen that relationship with Jesus by living a sacramental life.
