Am I praying correctly after Communion?

Are we supposed to pray a specific prayer after we genuflect and kneel in the pew before we take our seats? What about after Communion? I want to be sure I'm doing it correctly.

There is no particular prayer to say when we genuflect, enter the pew, and kneel for a while. Genuflecting and kneeling are powerful expressions and prayers in themselves - we kneel only to God.

But these gestures can become mere routine unless we accompany them with a moment of awareness and recollection and maybe a prayer like "I adore you, O Christ, and I bless you, because by your holy cross you have redeemed the world."

Neither are there required prayers to say in the moments after holy Communion as we return to the pew. But this is a most special time. Giving it a name, we call it thanksgiving. We silently remain focused on the astonishing passion and affection of Jesus in giving himself to us to eat and make part of ourselves. It's what gives us eternal life, the personal life of Jesus in that Bread we eat. It's what makes possible the living of a truly Christian life, the holy energy in that Body of Jesus.

So much depends on awareness; so much depends on gratitude. Prayer books may help us enter a time of thanksgiving. But surely we can know enough to say, "Jesus, I love you".
