Dear Padre
June 10, 2018

Does a Saturday wedding Mass count for Sunday obligation?

Your question is frequently asked of priests, so it's good to help clarify this matter. If you attend Mass anywhere in a Catholic rite either on Sunday or in the evening of the preceding day, then the obligation is satisfied (Canon 1248). “Evening” is generally understood in most dioceses as anytime from 4 p.m. onward. Thus, an afternoon Mass (wedding or otherwise) before 4 p.m. on Saturday is not an evening Mass and doesn't fulfill the obligation.

Moreover, if Mass is celebrated in a Catholic rite after 4 p.m. on Saturday, the Sunday obligation is satisfied regardless if the scriptural texts differ from those of the Sunday or holy day (Canon 1248 commentary).

A related question often asked of priests is whether Communion may be received more than once a day. Any eligible Catholic can receive Communion “a second time on the same day only within the Eucharistic celebration in which the person participates” (Canon 917). “A second time” doesn't mean “repeatedly.” Only those in danger of death, or priests who trinate at Mass, can receive Communion a third time in one day. This law is intended to promote a full sharing in the Lord's Body and Blood, while preventing the abuse of receiving multiple Communion out of misguided devotion.
